Knowledge leads to success

“Learn More, Earn More.”

Don't underestimate the value of promoting your designations and education to your peers and the public.

Join AAR's Master of Real Estate Society (MRE) and let your educational accomplishments be recognized.

The application period for the 2010 - 2011 term is January 1st - March 1st, 2010 and is available on www.aaronline.com. Membership is valid for two years. The application fee is $25.00.

It's an Exclusive Membership Society. Join now and get to know the other members of this Society. Once you are a member we encourage you to arrange networking functions in your area with your fellow society members.

Arizona Association of REALTORS® Master of Real Estate Society

Many REALTORS® attribute the foundation of their success to their continued real estate education. Knowledge leads to success. Most REALTORS® greatly underestimate the value of promoting designations and education to the public.

AAR's Master of Real Estate Society (MRE) could be just what you need. The Professional Development Committee created this Society in 2001 to recognize members' educational accomplishments on a continuing basis and provide you with a tool to market your accomplishments and show the consumer your commitment to the real estate industry and your career.

Criteria to belong:

- 1) REALTOR® in good standing

- 2) Hold an NAR-sanctioned designation

- 3) Hold another AAR or NAR designation or certification.

- 4) Take 54 hours of continuing education during the two-year period immediately prior to MRE application or MRE membership renewal (education classes must be an ADRE approved c/e program)

- 5) Earn 10 points: Points must be accumulated from a minimum of three out of the following categories
Note: Earn 1 point per occurrence within each category
 - a) Attendance at a NAR or AAR sanctioned conference or a state, national or regional real estate franchise meeting or conference. (i.e. CRS, WCR, RE/MAX International)
 - b) Serving on a local, state or national real estate related organization
 - c) Additional ADRE approved education classes above the required minimum 54 hours (ie: 1 point per 3 hour class)
 - d) Real Estate related classes (ie: college courses)
 - e) Hold an additional AAR/ NAR designation or certification
 - f) Hold an Arizona broker or associates broker license
 - g) Each MRE term served (1 point each term) Ex: 2008-2009 = 1
 - h) Each MRE sponsored class attended
 - i) Serving on a local, state or national community service organization

There is a $25.00 application fee! (This also applies to renewals). The application deadline is March 1st of each year and is valid for two years. Please do not send application in before January 1st. You can obtain an application on AAR online at www.aaronline.com , search "MRE." Once your application is approved, you will receive a certificate, pin, and an authorization to use the logo, also inclusion in the society's membership page on AAR online.

The MRE logo can be used on your business cards and personal marketing materials. Please remember that this is not a designation and therefore the initials should not be used after your name. Suggested format for use is:

Jane Doe, GRI
Master of Real Estate Society

If you have any questions regarding this Exclusive Society or the criteria, please contact Brittni Matt at the AAR office (602-248-7787 /1 800-426-7274) or by email brittnimatt@aaronline.com.

If you don't meet the requirements at this time, it's never too late to start: add earning a designation and taking more educational classes to your business plan and goals.
