Do you think the NAR Code of Ethics doesn't apply to property management? You'd be wrong. The NAR Code of Ethics applies to your day to day activity in countless ways and violating it can be costly.

Learn how to:

- Analyze key articles in NAR's Code of Ethics
- See how those rules apply to your property management activities
- Use the Code of Ethics to avoid violations

INSTRUCTOR:

Mike Mulvena has over 27 years of real estate sales and property management experience. Mike is also a state licensed instructor of property management, code of ethics, licensing and renewal classes throughout the state of Arizona.

CERTIFIED RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY MANAGER:

AAR's certification program is dedicated to property management and offers classes that you can use for your real estate license renewal. This program was designed to hone your knowledge and skills in topics that relate to your day to day business as a property manager. The curriculum was developed in concert with property management attorneys and longtime property management practitioners. To learn more, visit www.aaronline.com/increase-knowledge.
