STORYTELLERS

On April 27, the Arizona Association of Realtors hosted a statewide community service project with the Boys & Girls Club. More than 40 Realtors, including Flagstaff's Valerie Caro, pictured above, volunteered time at nine Boys & Girls Club branches reading and talking with students for National Tell A Story Day. Volunteers developed lesson plans that included crafts, discussion time and reading books. More than 100 children across the state were mentored during the day's activities. (Courtesy photo)
