~~✎~~ NAR POLICY #25. EXPENSES RELATED TO THE CONDUCT OF HEARINGS BY A MULTI-BOARD OR REGIONAL

Grievance Committee or Professional Standards Committee shall be as established by written agreement between the signatory Boards. The expenses of such hearings shall be borne by the signatory Boards and shall not be supported by fees charged to the parties other than appropriate deposits charged in connection with appeals of ethics decisions or as required with respect to arbitration.

~~✎~~ NAR POLICY #33. USE OF PANELS IN PLACE OF COMMITTEES AND BOARDS OF DIRECTORS.

Appeals from Arizona REALTORS® Grievance Committee, ethics appeals and procedural reviews will be considered by panels of Arizona REALTORS® Professional Standards Committee or by a panel of Grievance Committee members that did not previously review the case; final review and consideration of ethics decisions not appealed will be considered by at least five members of Arizona REALTORS® Executive Committee, and any other professional standards matters referencing Boards of Directors will be brought before Arizona REALTORS® Executive Committee. (Refer to part Fourteen, Arizona REALTORS® adaptation, for further details.)(Amended 10/12)

~~✎~~ NAR POLICY #45. PUBLISHING THE NAMES OF CODE OF ETHICS VIOLATORS.

The following procedures have been adopted which authorize the publication of the names of ethics violators (who are direct members of Arizona REALTORS®), and members of signatory associations to the Statewide Professional Standards Agreement (SPSA) subject to the following qualifications:

- Publication can only occur after a second violation occurs within three (3) years.
- Publication can only be made in an official communication vehicle of the Association in which the violator holds (held) membership. If the Association (or Associations) in which the violator holds (held) membership does not have an official communication vehicle or for some other reason does not publish the name within ninety (90) days of the decision becoming final, Arizona REALTORS® will publish the name of the local association/board member found in violation of the Code of Ethics by way of electronic communication to the members of the Association (or associations) in which that individual holds (held) membership. Publication of names of direct members of Arizona REALTORS® will be made in the official communication vehicle of Arizona REALTORS®.

- The name of the firm the violator is (or was) licensed with cannot be published.
- Publication must be consistent and uniform. This means that publication may not occur selectively but must be used in each instance where a second violation is determined within three (3) years.
- Other than the violator's name, the only additional information that may be published is the Article (or Articles) violated, and the discipline imposed, except that in cases where the violator's name is similar to another member's name, the violator's license number or office address (or both) may also be published.

At least one of the violations must be based on conduct which occurs after the adoption of these procedures. (Re-affirmed 06/07)

SECTION 53. THE AWARD

Paragraph (b): Add to the end of the following:

"Note, however, that filing an appeal with the Board in no way stays the running of any time requirement for seeking judicial review of the decision." (Per legal counsel, Bylaws change 06/90).

~~Arizona REALTORS® will follow Paragraphs (c) - (f) concerning Escrowing Arbitration Awards [Arizona REALTORS® will require the non-prevailing parties in Arizona REALTORS® arbitrations to pay the award to the prevailing party or deposit it in escrow at Arizona REALTORS® within twenty (20) days following receipt of the notice of the award.] (Adopted 05/94 – Amended 10/13) with the following change:~~

Paragraph (c): Add the following:

Details surrounding any disciplinary proceedings addressing an alleged violation of a membership duty for a non-prevailing party to comply with Section 53 (c) shall be confidential and not released to anyone other than the party(ies) charged with breaching the duty and Arizona REALTORS® Executive Committee members involved in such a proceeding, staff, and counsel, as appropriate, unless the resulting discipline results in suspension or expulsion from membership, at which time it would be permissible to publish to all members of the sanctioned member's association, pursuant to Section 23 (j) of the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. (Approved 07/07)

Change the time a non-prevailing party has to pay or escrow the award from ten (10) days to twenty (20) days. (Approved 06/08)

Subsection (d) first paragraph: Wherever it says “fifteen (15) days” in the paragraph, it shall be replaced with “30 days.” The Group made this change to provide a more reasonable time for the non-prevailing party to file a legal challenge to the award prior to the Association releasing the funds to the prevailing party. Further, the 30 day period shall begin from the time the decision of the procedural review panel is mailed to the parties.

Subsection (d) second paragraph: Change as follows: If the non-prevailing party does not request the Board to conduct a procedural review of the arbitration hearing process during the twenty (20) day period following service of the award, then written notification that a legal challenge has been instituted must be received within thirty (30) days following service of the award. Failure to provide written notification that a suit challenging the validity of the award has been filed within thirty (30) days following service of the award will result in the award being paid from the Board’s escrow to the prevailing party. (Revised 07/07)

SECTION 54. COSTS OF ARBITRATION

To help defray costs of the Arbitration, the deposit of the non-prevailing party shall be retained by the Association, unless otherwise directed by the Hearing Panel. The deposit of the prevailing party shall be returned. If there is a split award, the parties may receive a portion of their deposits back as determined by the arbitrators. (See also Part Fourteen. State Association, paragraph 6. Expenses of the Hearing Conducted by the Association.)

SECTION 55. REQUEST FOR PROCEDURAL REVIEW BY DIRECTORS

Paragraph (a): Written request for procedural review of the arbitration hearing procedures must be filed with the President within twenty (20) days after the award has been served on the parties and be accompanied by a deposit in the sum of $500.00. (Revised 03/06)

Paragraph (c): The request for procedural review may be heard by a panel of Directors appointed by the President for that purpose (or, alternatively, by the Board’s Executive Committee). Five (5) Directors or a quorum of the Board of Directors, whichever is less, shall constitute such panel, which shall act on behalf of the Board of Directors. The decision of the panel (or Executive Committee) shall be final and binding and shall not be subject to further review by the Board of Directors. (Revised 11/91)

Arizona REALTORS® shall not accept or consider any request for consideration of the decision of the panel (or Executive Committee). (Approved 10/08)

SECTION 56. ENFORCEMENT

PART FOURTEEN OF THE NAR
CODE OF ETHICS AND ARBITRATION MANUAL

AS ADAPTED BY ARIZONA REALTORS®

PART FOURTEEN – STATE ASSOCIATION PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS COMMITTEE

Authority and Requirement: The obligation of the State Association concerning the Code of Ethics of the National Association is established in Article IV, Code of Ethics, Sections 1 and 2, Bylaws, National Association:

Section 1. Each Member Board shall adopt the Code of Ethics of the National Association as a part of its governing regulations, for violation of which disciplinary action may be taken.

Section 2. Any Member Board which shall neglect or refuse to maintain and enforce the Code of Ethics with respect to the business activities of its members may, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, be expelled by the Board of Directors from membership in the National Association.

Jurisdiction of State Association:

The following procedures apply to matters which concern members of local associations that are not Signatories to the Statewide Professional Standards Agreement. Signatories to that Agreement have delegated the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members and the arbitration of disputes and procedures incident thereto to Arizona REALTORS®. All other matters will be governed by the following:

1. A local Board, prior to referring an ethics complaint or arbitration request for review to the State Association, should exhaust all efforts to impanel an impartial panel to conduct either the original hearing or the appeal or procedural review. These efforts may include the appointment of knowledgeable members of the Board on an ad hoc basis to serve on either a Hearing Panel or on behalf of the Board of Directors. If, because of notoriety, etc., the Board cannot impanel an impartial tribunal, the Board may refer the matter to the State Association, and the State Association may delegate to another Board or a regional enforcement facility, the authority to hear the case on behalf of the State Association. No Board or regional enforcement facility, however, may be required to accept this delegation of authority. If no other entity is amenable to conducting the review, the State Association shall be responsible for conducting the hearing. (Adopted 11/93)
2. Allegations of ethical violations and contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® and between REALTORS® and their customers and clients may be submitted to an ethics or arbitration panel at the Arizona Association level under the following circumstances:

(a) Allegations of unethical conduct made against a REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® who is directly a member of the State Association and not a member of any local Board. These complaints shall be referred directly to the Grievance Committee for its determination.

(b) Allegations of unethical conduct made against a REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® in the instance in which the local Board, because of size or other valid reason, determines that it cannot provide a due process hearing of the matter and petitions the Association to conduct a hearing. The Grievance Committee will decide whether jurisdiction is appropriate prior to determining its disposition.

(c) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® who are not members of the same Board where the matter has been referred to the Association by the Respondent's local Board in instances when the complainant files the arbitration request directly with the Respondent's Board. The Grievance Committee will decide whether jurisdiction is appropriate prior to determining its disposition.

If a complainant invokes interboard arbitration by filing an arbitration request at his Board of REALTORS® against a respondent who is not a member of that Board or who does not gain access to that Board's MLS through that Board, interboard arbitration will be held consistent with Part Eleven of the National Association's Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. Arizona REALTORS® may retain jurisdiction of an interboard arbitration only if both Boards refer the matter to Arizona REALTORS®.

(d) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® who are directly members of the Association and who are not members of any Board. These disputes will be referred directly to the Grievance Committee directly the Grievance Committee for its determination.

(e) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between a REALTOR® who does not hold membership in any Board, but is directly a member of the Association, and a REALTOR® who is a member of a Board. These disputes will be referred directly to the Grievance Committee for its determination.

(f) Contractual disputes between REALTOR® Members of the same Board where the Board with good and sufficient reason is unable to arbitrate the controversy. (Explanation: This provision is not designed to relieve the local Board of its primary responsibility to resolve differences arising between members of the same Board. This section recognizes that in some Boards with limited membership, usual arbitration procedures may be impossible). The Grievance Committee will decide whether jurisdiction is appropriate prior to determining its disposition.

(g) Contractual disputes between a customer or a client and a REALTOR® where the Board with good and sufficient reason is unable to arbitrate the dispute or the REALTOR® is a direct member of the State Association.

Ethics and Arbitration Proceedings: Professional Standards hearings and the organization and procedures incident thereto shall be governed by the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® as from time to time amended, which by this reference is made a part of these Bylaws. These provisions contained in PART FOURTEEN are designed to meet the recommendations by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® to expand the provisions of the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual as adopted to include more detailed procedures for handling interboard arbitration of business disputes as defined by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics.

The following procedures apply to matters which concern members of local associations that are not Signatories to the Statewide Professional Standards Agreement. Signatories to that Agreement have delegated the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members and the arbitration of disputes and procedures incident thereto to Arizona REALTORS®. All other matters will be governed by the following:

In adapting the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, the following additional procedures should be followed in the cases of ethics complaints and arbitrations of disputes handled by Arizona REALTORS® :

- 1. GEOGRAPHIC DISTRIBUTION OF PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS PANEL MEMBERS: Inasmuch as disputes may arise between Board members from different Boards located distant from each other, members of the Association's Professional Standards Committee should be selected from all areas of the state. According to Article XIII, Section 3 of the Association's Bylaws, all hearings shall be conducted at the Association's offices, unless unusual circumstances exist where the office is unavailable or, unless the hearing concerns members of associations signatory to the Statewide Professional Standards Agreement, which shall govern the location of the hearings.
- 2. FURTHER EXTENSION OF AVAILABLE PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS COMMITTEE MEMBERS: Members of the State Association Professional Standards Committee may be empowered, upon direction from the President of the State Association, to appoint additional members of the Committee from a given district or region of the state to have all the powers of regular members of the Professional Standards Committee and to conduct a hearing as required in that particular district or region of the state.
- 3. DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE: In addition to the descriptions of the duties of the Grievance and Professional Standards Committees defined in the entire Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, the Bylaws of the Association, specifically Article X, Section 6, refer to duties and structure of the Professional Standards committee and Article X, Section 5, refers to the duties and structure of the Grievance Committee. Job descriptions or plans of action further delineating the duties of the Committees may be assigned by the Association from time to time.
- 4. COMPLAINTS OF ALLEGED ETHICAL VIOLATIONS OR REQUESTS FOR ARBITRATION: Jurisdiction of the State Association, Item #2, delineates the situations that may result in ethics complaints or arbitration requests being referred to Arizona REALTORS®.

In the cases of ethics or arbitration matters where a Board feels it is unable to provide a due process hearing, a Request for Association Intervention form should be completed and signed by the Board President explaining why the Board feels it cannot handle the matter.

In the case of an arbitration between members or MLS-Only Participants of different Boards, the request may first be filed at the Respondent's Board. In the event that the Respondent's Board requests that the dispute be handled by the Association, the Respondent's Board should forward the request and any materials surrounding the dispute with a cover letter from the Board President referring the dispute to Arizona REALTORS®. Arizona REALTORS® will then obtain any necessary deposits, agreements or any other materials deemed necessary to process the request.

NOTE: Boards are reminded that they are encouraged to process arbitrations between members of different Boards at the Respondent's Board. However, should either of the parties specifically requests the Respondent's Board to refer the arbitration to Arizona REALTORS®, the Respondent's Board is encouraged to honor the request.

Arizona REALTORS® will take into consideration on a case-by-case basis the reason for the referral and the frequency of requests for intervention from a particular association in order to assess the association's capability to enforce the Code of Ethics.

If a complainant invokes interboard arbitration by filing an arbitration request at his Board of REALTORS® against a respondent who is not a member of that Board or who does not gain access to that Board's MLS through that Board, interboard arbitration will be held consistent with Part Eleven of the National Association's Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. Arizona REALTORS® may retain jurisdiction of an interboard arbitration only if both Boards refer the matter to Arizona REALTORS®.

All other ethics complaints or disputes concerning members of the Association who are not members of a local association may be referred to Arizona REALTORS® directly for processing according to the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

Arizona REALTORS® may delegate a matter referred to it to another local association or region to handle. See NAR Policy Statement #18 for further details about referrals to the State Association.

- 5. METHOD OF DETERMINING PROPRIETY OF A COMPLAINT OF ALLEGED ETHICAL VIOLATION OR REQUEST FOR ARBITRATION: Once referred to the Association's Grievance Committee, all ethics complaints or arbitration requests will be processed by the Committee according to appropriate procedures defined elsewhere in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. The Grievance Committee shall be the Committee to examine a complaint of alleged unethical conduct or request for arbitration to determine if it is properly presented by the complainant and has validity and substance to warrant a hearing before the Association's Professional Standards Committee. The Committee may assign a reviewer(s), if deemed necessary, to evaluate the complaint or request, and if so, should consider the member's location to make any review process more convenient.

The Grievance Committee's work is not that of a Hearing Panel of the Professional Standards Committee, but has the special function of determining the propriety of the complaint or request and the propriety of conducting a hearing.

- 6. EXPENSES OF THE HEARING CONDUCTED BY THE ASSOCIATION: The conduct of hearings by the Association can be less convenient than a local Board hearing. It involves distance, time and costs which can be significantly greater. Consequently, deposits of both parties to arbitration hearings shall be $500.00, or, in matters referred from local associations, the amount of the arbitration fee established by that local association, whichever is less.

To help defray costs of the Arbitration, the deposit of the non-prevailing party shall be retained by the Association, unless otherwise directed by the Hearing Panel. The deposit of the prevailing party shall be returned. If there is a split award, the parties may receive a portion of their deposits back as determined by the arbitrators.

- 7. COMPOSITION OF HEARING PANELS AND APPELLATE OR REVIEW PANELS: Members of ethics or arbitration hearing panels shall be selected from the Professional Standards Committee of the Association (unless, according to PART TEN, Section 45(b), the President appoints a special panel to hear an arbitration). The hearing panels shall be comprised of at least three (3) members.
- In the case of appeals of Grievance Committee dismissals of ethics complaints or arbitration requests, a panel of at least three (3) Professional Standards Committee members shall be selected to hear the appeal.

- In the case of appeals of ethics hearing decisions or procedural reviews of arbitration hearings, a panel of at least five (5) Professional Standards Committee members not involved in the original complaint shall hear the appeal or procedural review. There shall be no further appeal to the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors in such cases.
- In the case of appeals of ethics hearing decisions or procedural reviews of arbitration hearings referred to Arizona REALTORS® by a local Board or Association, a hearing panel of at least five (5) members of Arizona REALTORS® Professional Standards Committee shall serve as the appeal body.
- At least five members of the Association's Executive Committee shall be the body to adopt ethics hearing decisions recommended by the Professional Standards Committee.
- Any professional standards matters referenced in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual or Arizona REALTORS® Bylaws and Policies not otherwise assigned shall be handled by Arizona REALTORS® Executive Committee and not Arizona REALTORS® Board of Directors.

8. REFUSALS TO ARBITRATE. In the event a member is alleged to have improperly refused to submit to arbitration, the obligation shall be brought before a panel of five (5) REALTORS® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE®s appointed by the President.

ETHICS CITATION PROGRAM

I. Preliminary Procedures / Review by Grievance Committee

A. Information about the Ethics Citation program, including the Citation Schedule, will be provided as part of the information sent to all potential complainants who are considering filing complaints through the Statewide Professional Standards Program.

B. When a Grievance Panel receives a complaint, it shall review the complaint to determine if it includes allegations that are covered by the Citation Schedule. A Grievance Panel has the right to amend the complaint to add or delete Articles and/or Respondents.

1. If the Grievance Panel, after reviewing the information presented in the complaint and, taking all information in the complaint as true on its face, determines there is not a potential violation of any Article, the complaint shall be dismissed according to the usual terms of the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, preserving the complainant's right to appeal the dismissal.

2. If the complaint does not allege a violation of an Article covered by the Citation Schedule, the complaint shall be processed according to the usual terms of the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

3. If the complaint solely alleges the violation of an Article(s) covered by the Citation Schedule, the Grievance Panel will review the information presented in the complaint and, taking all information in the complaint as true on its face, determine if there is a potential violation of the Code of Ethics. If the Grievance Panel finds a potential violation, it shall have the option to issue a citation to the respondent pursuant to Section II, below, which shall include the fine(s) as established by the Citation Schedule.

4. If the complaint jointly alleges the violation of an Article(s) covered by the Citation Schedule and the violation of an Article(s) not covered by the Citation Schedule, the Grievance Panel will review the information presented in the complaint and, taking all information in the complaint as true on its face, determine if there is a potential violation of the Code of Ethics.

II. Issuance of Citations

A. The citation will be sent to the respondent, as well as to the REALTOR® principal of the respondent's office. Notice of the citation will not be sent to the Complainant until after the citation has been satisfied.

1. A copy of the complaint will be sent the respondent.

B. The respondent will have fifteen (15) days from receipt of the citation to provide notice as to whether the respondent will accept the citation and pay the fine, or whether the respondent requests a full hearing on the complaint.

1. If the respondent does not reply within fifteen (15) days of receiving the citation, the hearing process will automatically be started.

2. Acceptance of the citation by the respondent, including education for the first offense, shall be deemed to be a final resolution of the complaint, which shall not be appealable or subject to any further review.

3. If the respondent accepts the citation, payment and proof of completion from the sanctioned class must be received by Arizona REALTORS® no later than thirty (30) days after the date of acceptance. (Amended 10/13)

a. The case will be deemed to be closed upon receipt of payment and proof of completion from the sanctioned class, and notice will be provided to the complainant that the citation(s) has been issued and paid in full. (Amended 10/13)

b. Failure to pay the citation amount and provide proof of completion of the sanctioned class within thirty (30) days will result in the suspension of association membership(s) and MLS privileges and access until such time as the citation has been paid in full. (Amended 10/13)

III. Limitations

A. Any individual REALTOR® is limited in the number and type of citations that he/she may receive, according to the following rules:

1. No more than one (1) citation within a consecutive twelve (12) month period, starting with the date the first complaint was filed.
2. No more than three (3) citations within a consecutive thirty-six (36) month period, starting with the date the first complaint was filed.
3. No more than three (3) citations for the same violation at any time.
4. No additional citations are permitted where the cumulative fine for the citation, if issued, would be more than $1750.

B. Should an individual respondent exceed the limits in subsection A., above, any further complaints will be processed as a regular complaint without the opportunity to participate in the citation program. The program Administrator will review the citation history of a respondent to determine eligibility, and if the respondent is not eligible to receive a citation, the complaint will be forwarded to the Grievance Panel with a notation that the complaint is not covered by the Citation Schedule, but the Grievance Panel will not be told any specifics of why it is not eligible.

C. The fact that a respondent has previously been issued a citation for any violation – whether or not it was paid – shall not be admissible in any ethics or arbitration hearing, including a hearing for a complaint where the respondent rejected a citation.

D. Publishing the names of citation violators can occur after a third citation occurs within three (3) years. All other publication guidelines of Arizona REALTORS® adaptations to Section 45 of the CEAM will apply.

E. Citation sanctions will remain with the respondent's file indefinitely.

F. Where a hearing Panel has found a violation of the Code of Ethics after a full hearing, it may consider past citations paid by the respondent in establishing a sanction only if the citation was for the same violation at issue in the hearing. By way of example, if a citation was issued for failure to disclose a dual or variable rate commission under Standard of Practice 34, that citation could not be considered if a Hearing panel later found a violation of Article 3 on some other grounds. The Hearing Panel shall not be informed of past citations for other violations.

G. The Program Administrator will track the number of citations issued, the number of citations paid, and the violations for which citations were issued. This information may be provided in the aggregate but will not include details about the complaints nor identify the respondents.

IV. Citation Schedule

A. The following violations are covered by the ethics citation program:

1. Article 1: Standard of Practice 1-7
2. Article 1: Standard of Practice 1-16
3. Article 3
4. Article 4
5. Article 5
6. Article 6
7. Article 12
8. Article 14
9. Article 16

B. Fines for citations to be completed within sixty (60) days shall be as follows:

1. For the first violation $250 + education commensurate with Article violated
 - a. Class is to be taught by online or live instruction with proof of completion
2. For the second violation $500
3. For the third violation $750
4. For any violation that is repetitive of an earlier violation the fine shall be increased by $250 if it is the second violation, and by $500 if it is the third.
5. For any violation after the third for which the respondent is eligible to receive a citation, an increase of $500 from the amount of the third citation issued to the respondent.

• By way of example:

- A first violation of X should be $250. A second violation this time for Y, would be $500, and a third violation, this time for Z, would be $750.
- A first violation of X would be $250. A second violation, also of X, should be $750 ($500 + $250). A third violation, this time of Y, should be $750 (because the third is for a different offense).
- A first violation of X would be $250. A second violation of X would be $750 ($500 + $250). A third violation of X would be $1250 ($750 + $500).

OMBUDSMEN PROCEDURES

NOTE: After review and approval of the appropriate association work group(s), these procedures may be modified from time to time to provide for suggested scripts or other guidelines for approved ombudsmen. Any approved scripts or guidelines may be obtained by members by request. (10/22/02)

Arizona REALTORS® staff members or REALTORS® may be designated as ombudsmen from time-to-time by Arizona REALTORS® Professional Standards Committee Chair. (03/09) (Amended 01/16)

The Association has incorporated the following procedures as part of its Professional Standards Policies:

Associations of REALTORS® are charged with the responsibility of receiving and resolving ethics complaints. This obligation is carried out by local, regional and state grievance committees and professional standards committees.

Many “complaints” received by boards and associations do not expressly allege violations of specific Articles of the Code of Ethics, and many do not detail conduct related to the Code. Some “complaints” are actually transactional, technical, or procedural questions readily responded to.

It is the belief of Arizona REALTORS® that many ethics complaints might be averted with enhanced communications and initial problem-solving capacity at the local level. These ombudsmen procedures, which have been adopted and will be utilized by Arizona REALTORS®, are intended to provide that capacity.

Role of Ombudsmen

The ombudsman's role is primarily one of communication and conciliation, not adjudication. Ombudsmen do not determine whether ethics violations have occurred, rather they anticipate, identify, and resolve misunderstandings and disagreements before matters ripen into disputes and possible charges of unethical conduct.

Qualification and Criteria for Ombudsmen

At a minimum, ombudsmen should be thoroughly familiar with the Code of Ethics, state real estate regulations, and current real estate practice. Ombudsmen may be REALTORS®, staff members, or others acting on behalf of the local board/association.

Involving the Ombudsmen

Ombudsmen can field and respond to a wide variety of inquiries and complaints, including general questions about real estate practice, transaction details, ethical practice, and enforcement issues. Ombudsmen can also receive and respond to questions and complaints about members; can contact members to inform them that a client or customer has raised a question or issue; and can contact members to obtain information necessary to provide an informed response.

In cases where an ombudsman believes that a failure of communication is the basis for a question or complaint, the ombudsman can arrange a meeting of the parties and to facilitate a mutually acceptable resolution.

Where a written ethics complaint in the appropriate form is received, it can be initially referred to the ombudsman who will attempt to resolve the matter, except that complaints alleging violations of the public trust (as defined in Article IV, Section 2 of the NAR Bylaws) may not be referred to an ombudsman.

In the event the ombudsman concludes that a potential violation of the public trust may have occurred, the ombudsmen process shall be immediately terminated, and the parties shall be advised of this right to pursue a formal ethics complaint; to pursue a complaint with any appropriate governmental or regulatory body; to pursue litigation; or to pursue any other available remedy.

Right to Decline Ombudsmen Services

Persons filing complaints, or inquiring about the process for filing ethics complaints, will be advised that ombudsmen services are available to attempt to informally resolve their complaint. Such persons will also be advised that they may decline ombudsmen services and can have their complaint referred to ethics mediation (if available), or considered at a formal ethics hearing.

Resolution of Complaints

If a matter complained of is resolved to the mutual satisfaction of all parties through the efforts of an ombudsman, the formal ethics complaint brought initially (if any) will be dismissed.

Failure to Comply with Agreed Upon Resolution

Failure or refusal of a member to comply with the terms of a mutually agreed on resolution shall entitle the complaining party to resubmit the original complaint or, where a formal complaint in the appropriate form had not been filed, to file an ethics complaint. The time the matter was originally brought to the board or association's attention will be considered the filing date for purposes of determining whether an ethics complaint is timely filed.

Referrals to the Grievance Committee or to State Regulatory Bodies

Ombudsmen cannot refer concerns they have regarding the conduct of any party utilizing their services to the Grievance Committee, to the state real estate licensing authority, or to any other regulatory body. The prohibition is intended to ensure impartiality and avoid the possible appearance of bias. Ombudsmen are, however, authorized to refer concerns that the public trust may have been violated to the Grievance Committee.

Suspension of filing deadlines: If the Board's informal dispute resolution processes (e.g. ombudsmen, mediation, etc.) are invoked or initiated by a complainant (or potential complainant) with respect to conduct that becomes the subject of a subsequent ethics complaint, the one hundred eighty (180) day filing deadline shall be suspended beginning with the date of the complainant's (or potential complainant's) request for informal dispute resolution service or assistance and shall resume when the informal dispute resolution procedures are concluded or terminated.

Arizona REALTORS® ombudsmen will record the date of the first contact by the complainant's (or potential complainant's) in a computer file. Such date will be the date the informal dispute resolution began and when the filing deadline is suspended. If informal communication attempts by the ombudsmen or informal mediation is unsuccessful, Arizona REALTORS® ombudsmen will record the date that informal dispute resolution procedures are terminated in the computer file. Arizona REALTORS® ombudsmen will notify all parties to the dispute, in writing, of the termination date and that the one hundred eighty (180) day filing deadline countdown shall resume as of the following day. (Approved 10/01).

Questions about when informal dispute resolution began or ended will be determined by the Board President or the President's designee.

Appendix XI to Part Four – Ethics Mediation

Appointment of mediators

The chair of the Professional Standards Committee, with the approval of the Risk Management Committee Chair, will select one or more ethics mediators to act on behalf of the committee. Mediators should be thoroughly familiar with the Code of Ethics, state real estate regulations, and current real estate practice. (Amended 10/12)

Complaints that may be mediated

Complaints brought by the public or by other REALTORS® may be mediated under these procedures. Complaints brought by the Grievance Committee and complaints alleging a violation of the public trust (as defined in Article IV, Section 2 of the NAR Bylaws, as “demonstrated misappropriation of client or customer funds or property, willful discrimination, or fraud resulting in substantial economic harm”) may not be mediated.

Initiation of ethics mediation procedures

The ethics mediation process can be initiated three ways:

- 1) Where a written ethics complaint in the appropriate form is received, ethics mediation will be offered to the complainant. If the complainant is willing to mediate, the respondent will be offered mediation. If mediation is not agreed to at this time, the complaint will be reviewed by the Grievance Committee so a determination can be made whether a possible violation may have occurred or, alternatively, whether the complaint should be dismissed as not requiring a hearing.
- 2) If the complaint is forwarded by the Grievance Committee, and if the Grievance Committee does not find a potential violation of the public trust, ethics mediation will be offered again.
- 3) Where an informal inquiry or general letter of complaint, is received, it will not be reviewed by the Grievance Committee, but ethics mediation will be offered. (Amended 01/16)

Participation in ethics mediation is voluntary

Persons inquiring about the process for filing ethics complaints will be advised that ethics mediation is available as an alternative to a formal ethics hearing provided that all parties agree to participate, and also be advised they may decline or withdraw from mediation and have their complaint considered at a formal ethics hearing. Similarly, REALTORS® complained about have the right to decline or withdraw from mediation and to have complaints against them considered at a formal ethics hearing.

Referral of complaints to the mediator

When either a written ethics complaint in the appropriate form is reviewed by the Grievance Committee and the Grievance Committee concludes that a hearing is warranted, or when a general letter of inquiry or complaint is received, and the matter(s) complained of do not involve a possible violation of the "public trust," the materials received may be referred to the ethics mediator by Arizona REALTORS® staff who will contact the parties to schedule a meeting at a mutually agreeable time. During the mediation session the mediator will encourage all parties to openly and candidly discuss all issues and concerns giving rise to the inquiry or complaint, and to develop a resolution acceptable to all of the parties. In the event the mediator concludes that a potential violation of the public trust may have occurred, the mediation process shall be immediately terminated, and the parties shall be advised of their right to pursue a formal ethics complaint; to pursue a complaint with any appropriate governmental or regulatory body; to pursue litigation; or to pursue any other available remedy. (Amended 10/12)

Nature of the mediated resolution

The mediator and the parties have considerable latitude in fashioning a mutually acceptable resolution. Resolutions can include, but are not limited to, payment of disputed funds, repairs or restoration of property, written or oral apology, or acknowledgement of a violation of the Code of Ethics. In cases where a REALTOR® acknowledges that the Code has been violated, that admission may be sufficient to resolve the matter or, alternatively, the parties may agree that discipline should be imposed. The discipline may, at the agreement of all parties, include any of the forms of discipline established in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual and may also include payment of monies to the complainant or to a third party. Also, the parties agree that the Professional Standards case, and complaints involving the same subject matter, whether filed in a court of law or before an administrative agency, shall be dismissed with prejudice and that no such claims will be filed in the future. (Amended 01/16)

Referrals to the Grievance Committee or to state regulatory bodies

Ethics mediators cannot refer concerns they have regarding the conduct of any party to mediation to the Grievance Committee, to the state real estate licensing authority or to any other regulatory body. This prohibition is intended to ensure impartiality and avoid the possible appearance of bias. Mediators are however, authorized to refer concerns that the public trust may have been violated to the Grievance Committee. (Amended 01/16)

Refusal to comply with agreed upon discipline

Once a resolution agreement has been agreed to and executed by the parties, the agreement is binding and the complaining party shall not be entitled to submit an ethics complaint or resubmit the original ethics complaint. Instead, any action brought to enforce the agreement by the prevailing party shall entitle the prevailing party to an award of reasonable attorney's fees, legal expenses, and court costs, (Amended 01/16)

Confidentiality of mediation process

The allegations, discussions, and decisions rendered in ethics mediation proceedings are confidential and shall not be reported or published by the Board, any member of a tribunal, or any party under any circumstances except those established in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® as from time to time amended.

Mediation of an Arbitrable Dispute

Appointment of mediators

The chair of the Professional Standards Committee, with the approval of the Risk Management Committee Chair, will select one or more ethics mediators to act on behalf of the committee. Mediators should be thoroughly familiar with the Code of Ethics, state real estate regulations, and current real estate practice. (Amended 10/12)

Requests that may be mediated regarding a business dispute

Mediation is Mandatory or Voluntary as Determined by Arizona REALTORS®: It must be understood by all parties that participation in mediation procedures is entirely voluntary, except that REALTORS® (principals) are required to mediate otherwise arbitrable disputes pursuant to Article 17. (Arizona REALTORS® adopted 2012)

Initiation of Mediation Proceedings: Staff, upon receipt of a request for arbitration, will advise all parties of their mediation obligations. If mediation is voluntary and the parties agree, staff will refer the matter to the Mediation Officer and will arrange a mutually convenient time and location for mediation. When mediation is voluntary and the mediation attempt is unsuccessful, or if either of the parties wish to discontinue the mediation process for any reason, then mediation will be terminated. Any request for arbitration filed after an unsuccessful mediation will be referred to the Grievance Committee for review. A party may request that mediation be deferred until such time as the arbitration request has been reviewed by the Grievance Committee, and the Grievance Committee will determine whether (a) an arbitrable issue exists, and (b) whether arbitration would be voluntary or mandatory. Where any party initially declines to mediate pending the Grievance Committee's review of the arbitration request, the parties shall in all instances again be offered the opportunity to mediate following the Grievance Committee's review. (Revised 5/12)

Boards may also offer disputing parties an opportunity to mediate prior to an arbitration request being filed. (NAR Adopted 11/11)

If either of the parties rejects the proposed resolution, the mediation procedure will be deemed concluded and the matter will proceed to arbitration.

Requests that may be mediated concerning a business dispute

See Section 44. Duty and Privilege to Arbitrate. Requests brought by the public or by other REALTORS® as described in Section 44 (a) (1-6) may be mediated under these procedures.

Requests brought by the public or by other REALTORS® regarding Arizona REALTORS® Buyer Broker Exclusive Employment Agreements (BBEEA) or any other agreement referring to Arizona REALTORS® Professional Standards mediation procedures may be mediated per the terms of the respective agreement.

Participation in mediation of a business dispute

Persons inquiring about the process to resolve a business dispute will be advised that mediation is available: 1) prior to filing an arbitration request as described in Section 44; and 2) as a result of a BBEEA or any other agreement referring to Arizona REALTORS® Professional Standards mediation procedures, provided that all parties voluntarily agree to participate.

Persons inquiring about the process to mediate once a Request and Agreement to Arbitrate has been filed and after the Grievance Committee determined that an arbitrable issue exists will be advised that mediation is mandatory unless both parties agree in writing to withdraw from the mediation process and proceed directly to an arbitration hearing.

Referral of requests to the mediator

When a written request and agreement to arbitrate is received in its proper form it will be provided to and reviewed by the Grievance Committee. Should the committee determine that an arbitrable issue exists then Arizona REALTORS® staff will advise the parties in writing whether the determination is for mandatory or voluntary arbitration. Mandatory arbitration will require that the parties mediate their dispute before proceeding to a hearing and require that they complete the Mediation Officer Selection form and the Agreement to Mediate form. When a written request to mediate is received in its proper form it will be reviewed by staff. Arizona REALTORS® staff will contact the parties and a mediator to schedule a mutually agreeable time for the mediation conference. In the event a voluntary mediation does not resolve the dispute then the parties will be advised of their other options to resolve the dispute through Arizona REALTORS®. In the event a mandatory mediation does not resolve the dispute then the arbitration will proceed to a hearing.

Nature of the mediation resolution

The mediator and the parties have considerable latitude in fashioning a mutually agreeable settlement. It is recommended that settlement terms describe the parties names, settlement due date, any payment arrangement including installments if so agreed, and any other terms and conditions.

Filing Deposits

Arbitration deposits made by the parties will be returned if the dispute is successfully mediated. Deposits will be held in a special account maintained for this purpose until the conclusion of any arbitration hearing or withdrawal of an arbitration request.

Referrals to the Grievance Committee

Mediators cannot refer concerns they have regarding the conduct of any party in mediation to the Grievance Committee, to the state real estate licensing authority, or to any other regulatory body. This prohibition is intended to ensure impartiality and avoid the possible appearance of bias.

Refusal to comply with agreed upon settlement

Failure or refusal to comply with the agreed upon settlement will give the aggrieved party the right to submit the settlement agreement to the judicial courts for enforcement.

File Retention

Matters resolved through mediation cannot be re-filed with Arizona Association of REALTORS®. Mediation of Business Dispute or Mediation of an Arbitrable Issue files are to be destroyed once the mediation has concluded and any terms are met. (2013)

- A. The authority for the establishment and utilization of statewide professional standards enforcement procedures shall be established by this Agreement approved by the Boards of Directors of AAR and the _____ Association of REALTORS® and confirmed by approval of their respective Boards of Directors, or, if required, by the general membership at a duly called meeting with notice as required by the respective Associations' Bylaws.

II. Geographic Area

- A. The geographic area served by this Agreement shall be the area of the combined territorial jurisdiction assigned by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® to the Associations which are signatories to this Agreement.

III. Purpose

- A. The purpose of this Agreement is to create statewide professional standards enforcement procedures providing for the establishment of a Grievance Committee and a Professional Standards Committee comprised of members from each signatory Association for enforcement of the Code of Ethics, including the mediation of disputes and the conduct of arbitration hearings, involving members of the signatory Associations to ensure impartial and unbiased hearing panels for the conduct of hearings on a basis designed to provide this service and meet the responsibilities of the signatory Associations on an efficient and effective basis to better serve their members. Each local signatory association shall submit all ethics complaints and arbitration requests to AAR for processing under this Agreement.

IV. Composition of Tribunals

- A. This agreement authorizes the creation of a statewide Grievance Committee. New signatory associations shall solicit interested members to serve on this committee based on the criteria recommended by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®. Names for vacancies to the Committee may be solicited from signatory associations each year, if needed. Appointment of Grievance Committee members is subject to approval by the AAR Risk Management Committee and subject to review by the AAR Executive Committee. The AAR President shall appoint the Chair and Vice Chair. There shall be a minimum of nine members on the Committee. Grievance Committee meetings will be held, as required, at AAR. All members must be subject to annual professional standards requirements prior to reviewing ethics complaints or requests for arbitration.

- C. Members of the Grievance Committee and the Professional Standards Committee shall be appointed initially in terms of one (1), two (2), and three (3) years (one-third for each term). New appointments shall be made for three (3) year terms as each term expires.
- D. This Agreement also authorizes the establishment of Ethics Appeal and Procedural Review Panels and Panels to review appeals of Grievance Committee dismissals. These Panels will be comprised of members of the Professional Standards Committee not previously involved in the subject cases.
- E. The AAR Executive Committee or a tribunal of the Executive Committee shall be responsible for review of ethics decisions not appealed. Such decisions and recommendations for sanction, if any, shall be implemented only upon such review and adoption by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall handle all professional standards matters unless otherwise specified in AAR Policies or in this Agreement. The Executive Committee shall receive annual training on this limited aspect of the process.
- F. This agreement also authorizes the appointment by the AAR President of a panel of Mediation Officers. All AAR mediators must attend approved mediation training as required by AAR. Although utilization of the mediation service shall be voluntary and although the process is not defined as a Tribunal, all parties to any requested arbitration shall be provided the opportunity to mediate a controversy arising out of a real estate transaction and their relationship as REALTORS® prior to the arbitration of the controversy, and, all parties to an ethics complaint shall also be provided the opportunity to mediate an ethics complaint according to AAR Professional Standards Policy.

V. Operation

- A. Professional Standards Hearings and the organization and procedures incident thereto shall be governed by the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® as amended from time to time, and as adapted to conform to the provisions of applicable state law and AAR approved Professional Standards Policies which are hereby agreed shall be considered as adopted and incorporated into the Bylaws of each Association signatory to this Agreement.
- B. Appeal of an ethics determination rendered by the AAR Professional Standards Committee shall be heard by an AAR Appeal Panel as described in IV (D).
- C. Appeal is not provided from the decision of an arbitration panel except with respect to a claim by a party alleging deprivation of due process. Such a claim shall be heard by a Review Panel as described in IV (D).
- D. AAR has the authority and the responsibility to enforce all discipline rendered by a Hearing Panel of the AAR Professional Standards Committee in matters of alleged unethical conduct. This agreement authorizes AAR to enforce any and all disciplinary action recommended in the hearing decision, including the right to fine, place on probation, suspend or expel a REALTOR® and/or MLS Only Participant from a signatory Association or from access to their Multiple Listing Service. This agreement also authorizes AAR to take disciplinary action against a member, including, but not limited to, suspension or expulsion of a member for a breach of a membership duty, including failure to pay arbitration fees, failure to escrow an arbitration award per AAR Professional Standards Policy, and Section 53 of the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, or breach of any membership duty [as provided for in AAR's Bylaws, Article XIII, Sections 4]. AAR will be responsible for maintaining the files on each complaint and will retain all fines imposed and collected in an ethics proceeding. Copies of final decisions will be provided to the Respondent's association for their information.

Consistent with Professional Standard Policy Statement #45, Publishing the Names of Code of Ethics Violators, each signatory local association expressly grants the Arizona REALTORS® the authority to publish the names of the local association members found in violation of the Code of Ethics subject to the following qualifications:

- Publication can only occur after a second violation occurs within three (3) years;
 - Publication can only be made in an official communication vehicle of the Association in which the violator holds (held) membership. If the Association (or Associations) in which the violator holds (held) membership does not have an official communication vehicle or for some other reason does not publish the name within ninety (90) days of the decision becoming final, AAR will publish the name of the local association/board member found in violation of the Code of Ethics by way of electronic communication to the members of the association (or associations) in which that individual holds (held) membership. Publication of names of direct members of AAR will be made in the official communication vehicle of AAR.
 - The name of the firm the violator is (or was) licensed with cannot be published;
 - Publication must be consistent and uniform. This means that publication may not occur selectively but must be used in each instance where a second violation is determined within three (3) years;
 - Other than the violator's name, the only additional information that may be published is the Article (or Articles) violated, and the discipline imposed, except that in cases where the violator's name is similar to another member's name, the violator's license number or office address (or both) may also be published;
 - At least one of the violations must be based on conduct which occurs after the adoption of these procedures.
- E. In the event a member is alleged to have improperly refused to submit a controversy to arbitration, the allegation shall be brought before a Tribunal of five members of AAR's Professional Standards Committee who did not serve on the original arbitration hearing panel. The procedures for notices, time of notices, and hearing prescribed for matters before a hearing panel shall apply. The sole question of fact to decide will be whether the party has refused to submit an arbitrable matter to arbitration. Upon determination that the member has refused to arbitrate a properly arbitrable matter, the Tribunal may direct implementation of appropriate sanction, including, but not limited to, suspension or expulsion of the member from the local Association of REALTORS® or its MLS. The decision of the Tribunal shall be final and binding and is not subject to further review. Copies of the final decisions will be provided to the parties' associations for their information.

- F. In order to determine the severity of any sanction in an ethics case, this agreement also authorizes AAR to access the respondent's personal files at the appropriate signatory association(s).
- G. All decisions governed by this Agreement are final and are not subject to further review by signatory associations.
- H. Appendix A (Processing an Ethics Complaint) and Appendix B (Processing an Arbitration Request) are incorporated as part of this Agreement.

VI. Reservation of Rights

- A. It is understood and agreed by the Associations signatory to this cooperative Agreement that each Association reserves to itself all authority, rights, and privileges as have been assigned to it by its Charter and agreement with the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, except as voluntarily modified by this cooperative Agreement.
- B. It is further understood and agreed that any Association signatory to this Agreement may withdraw from the Agreement at any time provided the withdrawing Association shall provide notice to the other signatory Associations ninety (90) days in advance of the date of withdrawal.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the parties have hereto set their hands and seals on this ___ day of _____, 20___. The effective date of the Agreement shall be January 1, 20_____.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

WITNESS ISSUES

Q: A party to the dispute would like to have a witness with pertinent first-hand knowledge about the dispute attend the hearing. Can the witness attend the hearing and be accompanied by his/her own counsel?

A: A witness can bring an attorney if the chair allows it. (DM 03/09)

Q: A Managing Broker wants to attend an Arbitration hearing as a principal. How is a Managing Broker's role related to the arbitration request?

A. The opposing party should be properly noticed of the Managing Broker's role so that they know who will be testifying. If the Managing Broker attends the hearing with the principal broker, he/she does not need notice unless he/she intends to testify. If it is necessary to clarify the Managing Broker's role, the Hearing Panel Chair can go on record at the beginning of the hearing asking the opposing party if they need additional time to prepare their defense given the Managing Broker in question is attending on behalf of the firm which would allow him to remain in throughout the hearing and participate on behalf of the firm (not just testify as a typical witness). (DM 06/10)

TAPE RECORDING/TRANSCRIPT QUESTIONS

Q: A respondent prevailed at a hearing and was not found in violation of the code of ethics. The respondent, quoting Section 2 (e) (2) of the CEAM, requested a copy of the hearing's transcript for use in a related civil matter. The respondent was not eligible to request an appeal. Can Arizona REALTORS® release the hearing notes to the complainant?

A: No. Section 2 (e) (1) authorizes dissemination of the decision where necessary to vindicate a member's reputation; it does not provide that the transcript or recording of the hearing can be used for that purpose. The intent of subsection (e) (2) is similar, though the wording is less specific. It does not authorize use of the transcript or recording in other proceedings. (DM 1/09)

TIMELINESS

Q: After the Grievance Committee has forwarded an ethics complaint or an arbitration request, can the Hearing Panel determine that the filing was not timely?

A: Yes. The issue may be considered at a prehearing meeting or at the outset of the actual hearing (to be decided by the hearing panel chair). If the chair determines the issue will be considered at the outset of the hearing, parties will be told that the panel will listen to the parties arguments and that they should come prepared to discuss the issue, if they would like to comment.

At the hearing, all parties will be sworn in, the parties will have an opportunity to question each other and the panel will be given an opportunity to ask questions of the parties limited to the timely filed issue. Thereafter, the hearing panelists will go into executive session and make their decision.

Regardless of whether a prehearing meeting is held or the matter is reviewed at the outset of the actual hearing, if the hearing panel dismisses the case, the panel's rationale will be shared with the parties and the parties will be given form E-22 or A-20, as appropriate. The parties will have an opportunity to appeal, just like they would if the grievance committee dismissed the case. The parties are not entitled to attend the appeal.

In the event the dismissal is overturned on appeal, the case will be referred back to the same hearing panel for the hearing, absent some compelling reason not to have the same panel hear the merits.

The appeal panel can advise when they rule on the timely filed issue, whether the hearing should be held before the same, or a different panel. (DM 05/11)

Appeal provisions specific to Arbitration (see Section 45 of the CEAM):

If the dismissal is overturned, the matter will be remanded back to the original Hearing Panel on all cases.

FAILURE TO COOPERATE

Q: What is the Sanction for a complainant's failure to attend a hearing without a valid reason?

A: ARBITRATION: If the complainant fails to appear for the arbitration hearing without a valid reason, the panel may dismiss the arbitration with the Respondent's consent and direct that the complainant's deposit be retained by the association.

ETHICS: When the complainant fails or refuses to appear at the hearing and the grievance committee becomes the complainant pursuant to Section 31 (f) (3) of the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, the hearing panel can require the former complainant to appear and place all pertinent facts before the hearing panel as a witness (although the Grievance Committee is primarily responsible for production of witnesses and exhibits). If the former complainant is a REALTOR® and does not appear when summoned by the hearing panel, then the former complainant may be charged with a violation of Article 14. (DM 06/10)
