

WHAT IS A

BUYER REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT?

WHY AM I

being asked to sign one?

Buying a home is often the largest purchase of your life. But don't worry - your REALTOR® is here to help you navigate the home buying process and is ethically obligated to work in your best interest, abiding by the REALTOR® Code of Ethics.

Equally important is that you know what your REALTOR® is going to do for you and the cost associated with their services.

For that reason, as of August 17, 2024, all REALTORS® nationwide will require their buyers to enter into a written representation agreement prior to touring a home.

OUR PROMISE

To you

WHEN USING A REALTOR® REPRESENTATION FORM, YOU ARE GUARANTEED THAT THE AGREEMENT WILL INCLUDE:

- An identifiable and specific amount or rate of compensation your REALTOR® will receive for their services; and
- A term that prohibits your REALTOR® from receiving compensation for brokerage services that exceeds the rate or amount agreed to.

Remember, broker compensation is not set by law and is fully negotiable between you and your REALTOR®. Carefully read the document, make sure you understand and agree to all the terms, and ask your REALTOR® or legal advisor any questions you might have. As REALTORS®, we want to ensure the terms of your representation are clear and transparent.
